

PURPOSEFUL PARENTING

Encouraging parents and children to flourish and grow in Christlikeness.

As parents, we want to do the right thing. We want to raise happy, healthy, cooperative, well-behaved kids. And our intention as Christians is to please God in the way we do it.

Join us for a lighthearted yet informative talk entitled,

'The Incredible Power of the Parent-Child Relationship'

HOSTED BY:

Community Lutheran Church – San Marcos Campus
340 Rancheros Drive, #160, San Marcos, CA 92069 ~ 760-739-1650
(*Scholarships available – Contact Jim Meyer at 760-739-1650)

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH

4:00 – 6:00PM

You will gain:

- A deeper understanding of how differing parenting styles effect the brain and shape what a child believes about themselves, others, and even God!
- An expanded knowledge of how you can communicate with any child in a new way that connects with their heart!
- Detailed ways the child will feel heard and understood, and you can remain in authority, avoid power struggles and gain cooperation!As well as various, exciting, research-based parenting tools!

EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

Parents, Grandparents, Aunts/Uncles, Friends, Neighbors, Educators

REFRESHMENTS & CHILD CARE PROVIDED!

(Child care check-in starts at 3:45!)

TUITION: Single - $20, Couple - $35

SPEAKERS:

Katy Sensmeier, MA, MFT

and

Heidi McLain, DC, PhD

Katy is a Mom and a Marriage & Family Therapist. Before becoming a Mom and Therapist, she taught in public schools. She loves her clinical work and has shared her knowledge by presenting at numerous conferences and retreats both nationally and internationally.

Heidi is a Mom, a Grandmother, a Clinical Christian Counselor and author of 'Babysitting for God.' She teaches Parenting and Co-Parenting workshops for the courts, has both fostered and adopted children and enjoys presenting and doing private parenting coaching.